WHEREAS, Attorneys have identified Consultant as having the requisite experience to assist them with the Defense.

NOW, THEREFORE, in exchange for valuable consideration, including without limitation the mutual covenants, agreements, and representations contained in this Agreement, the Parties covenant and agree as follows:

1. SCOPE OF SERVICES.

1.1 Consultant agrees to provide expert consultation and witness services to Attorneys in connection with the Defense. Consultant's services may include, at the direction of Attorneys, but will not be limited to: review of relevant factual evidence including witness statements, interviews, police reports, investigation reports, photographs, videotapes, and policies and procedures; preparation of an expert report(s) setting forth findings and opinions; review of all expert report(s) prepared by other experts; testifying at pretrial hearings and trial; and assistance, if requested, in any appeals.

1.2 Consultant understands and agrees that Consultant will be asked to provide services as needed by the Attorneys but is not guaranteed any or all relevant work and that Attorneys may use other Consultants of their choosing.

1.3 As may be required by Utah Code Section 77-17-13, upon reasonable notice Consultant will make themselves available to, and cooperatively consult with, the opposing party.

2. CONSIDERATION.

2.1 Consultant shall bill in increments of 1/10th of an hour and shall bill at the rates specified below.

SG

- A. Consultant shall be paid at the rate of $300 per hour for reviewing relevant factual evidence, consulting with Attorneys, preparing a written report, performing pretrial work, travel to and from court, and for testifying in court or depositions.
- B. Consultant's fees shall be capped at $7,500 for the initial case review and the preparation of a report that defense counsel can use to determine and effectively argue whether or not defendant has an intellectual disability, as defined in Utah Code 77-15a-102, or diminished mental capacity, as defined in Utah Code.
- C. Following the preparation of a report, no additional work shall be done by Consultant until defense counsel files a notice or motion with the court under Utah Code 77-16a-301 or Utah Code 77-15a-104.

2.2 County shall reimburse Consultant for reasonable and necessary travel-related expenses under the following conditions.

- A. If Consultant is required to travel by airplane, Consultant must travel in coach or comparable class, using advanced purchase when possible through a major commercial carrier. Consultant will need to schedule air travel for which County will reimburse Consultant up to $1,000 for one round-trip air ticket.
- B. If Consultant is required to stay overnight in a hotel, Consultant will be reimbursed up to the Utah State lodging per-diem rate of $125.00 (plus tax) per night. If this rate is unavailable, Consultant may request an exception.
- C. Consultant will be reimbursed for standard taxi or other transportation services such as Uber or Lyft to get to and from the airport.
- D. Consultant will be provided a meal per-diem of no more than $43.00 per 24 hour period. Partial travel days will be reimbursed at $10, for breakfast, $14.00 for lunch and $19.00 for dinner.
- E. If it is reasonable for Consultant to travel in a privately owned vehicle, Consultant will be reimbursed at the rate of $0.58 per mile.

2.3 Consultant will submit an invoice to County within 15 days following the end of the month in which any services are rendered pursuant to this Agreement. Each invoice will detail the billing rate, work performed, by whom, and on what dates. Invoices should be sent to Attorneys via email as well as to the County via the following email or physical address:

Weber County Attorney's Office
Attn: Bryan Baron
2380 Washington Blvd., Suite 230
Ogden, UT 84401

bbaron@co.weber.ut.us

2.4 If Consultant is seeking reimbursement for expenses and costs under the Agreement, including travel-related expenses, each invoice will also detail all costs and expenses incurred by Consultant in the performance of services under this Agreement and be accompanied by receipts or other proof of purchase.

2.5 In no event will the total amount of consideration paid by County to Consultant under this Agreement, absent a written amendment, exceed $15,000.00, including all fees and expenses. This amount covers the Term plus Additional Terms, if any, as described in Section 3 below. If fees and costs for any work requested by County will exceed $15,000.00, Consultant will notify the County prior to incurring such additional fees or costs. At that time, County may budget additional funds and the parties may enter into an additional written agreement, the County may terminate the Agreement as provided below, or the County may take such other action as it deems appropriate. If Consultant fails to notify County that Consultant's performance under this Agreement will exceed $15,000.00 and fails to obtain written authorization to incur fees beyond $15,000.00, County may refuse to pay any amount in excess of $15,000.00.

2.6 Payment to Consultant is not dependent upon Consultant's findings or opinions, nor on the outcome of any legal action. However, Consultant is required to honestly and in good faith formulate and truthfully express Consultant's findings and opinion(s) and limit the same to areas where Consultant believes they are qualified and prepared to opine. Consultant's failure to do so will constitute a material misrepresentation and breach of the Agreement entitling County to withhold future payments and the reimbursement of previously paid fees and costs related to the breach, and to seek any other compensation for damages or pursue any other available remedies.

3. EFFECTIVE DATE/TERM. This Agreement shall be effective upon execution by both parties and shall continue for five years from the date of execution ("Term"). This Agreement may be renewed, at the end of the Term, as agreed upon by the parties subject to the same terms and conditions as set forth in this Agreement ("Additional Terms"). All consideration for the Term and any Additional Terms shall be limited to the amount stated in Paragraphs 2.1 and 2.5 unless amended in writing and executed by the Parties.

4. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR AND TAXES. The relationship of County and Consultant under this Agreement shall be that of an independent contractor. Each party shall have the entire responsibility to discharge all of the obligations of an independent contractor under federal, state, and local law, including but not limited to: those obligations relating to employee supervision, benefits and wages; taxes; unemployment compensation and insurance; social security; worker's compensation; disability pensions and tax withholdings, including the filing of all returns and reports and the payment of all taxes, assessments and contributions and other sums required of an independent contractor. Consultant and County shall each be solely and entirely responsible for its acts and for the acts of its agents, employees, and servants during the performance of this Agreement.

12. TERMINATION.

12.1 Termination by Consultant for Default. Either Party may terminate this Agreement for an Event of Default upon written notice. 12.2 Force Majeure. Neither party shall be liable for any excess costs if the failure to perform arises from causes beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of that party, e.g., acts of God, fires, floods, strikes, or unusually severe weather. If such condition continues for a period in excess of 60 days, Consultant or County shall have the right to terminate this Agreement without liability or penalty effective upon written notice to the other party.

12.3 Waiver. The Parties agree that the waiver of any breach of this Agreement by either party shall in no event constitute a waiver as to any future breach.

12.4 Termination for Convenience. County reserves the right to terminate this Agreement, in whole or in part, at any time during the Term or any Additional Terms whenever County determines, in its sole discretion that it is in the County's interest to do so. If County elects to exercise this right, County shall provide written notice to Consultant at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of termination. Upon such termination, Consultant shall be paid for all services up to the date of termination. Consultant agrees that County's termination for convenience will not be deemed an Event of Default, nor will it entitle Consultant to any rights or remedies provided by law or this Agreement for breach of contract by the County or any other claim or cause of action.
