NOW THEREFORE, County and City enter this agreement with the following terms and conditions;

SECTION ONE
SERVICES PROVIDED AND CONSIDERATION

- 1.01 The City will maintain the position of the Security Camera so that the County’s ballot drop box is under 24-hour video surveillance.
- 1.02 All Security Camera recordings are considered records of The City for purposes of Utah Code Annotated, Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records and Access Management Act (“Act”). The City will grant the County access to the Security Camera recordings upon the County’s request. Any Security Camera recording provided to the County shall be considered a shared record under Section 63G-2-206 of the Act, unless the City notifies the County in writing that such record is a public record.

- 1.03 The City will maintain ownership and control of the Security Camera and is responsible for the installation, supplies, and maintenance of the Security Camera, as well as the associated costs.
- 1.04 The City will retain the Security Camera video recordings in accordance with applicable Utah State Law and the City's own record retention policies.
- 1.05 In Consideration for the services provided by the City to the County, as described in this Agreement, the County shall provide a one-time reimbursement to the City up to $1,624.79 for a new camera, installation of a camera, moving of a camera or other applicable costs. - 2.03 Indemnification. Both parties are governmental entities under the Governmental Immunity Act of Utah, §§ 630-7-101 to -904, as amended (the "Act"). There are no indemnity obligations between these parties. Subject to and consistent with the terms of the Act, the parties shall be liable for their own negligent acts or omissions, or those of their authorized employees, officers, and agents while engaged in the performance of the obligations under this Agreement, and neither party shall have any liability whatsoever for any negligent act or omission of the other party, its employees, officers, or agents. Neither party waives any defenses or limits of liability available under the Act and other applicable law. Both parties maintain all privileges, immunities, and other rights granted by the Act and all other applicable law.
- 2.04 Severability. The declaration by any court or any other binding legal source, that any provision of this Agreement is illegal or void, shall not affect the legality and enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement, unless the provisions are mutually dependent.

The term of this Agreement shall not exceed fifty (50) years pursuant to §11-13- 216 of the Interlocal Cooperation Act. The parties reserve the right to terminate this Agreement, in whole or in part, at any time during the term or any additional terms whenever the terminating party determines, in its sole discretion that it is in the terminating party's interest to do so. If a party elects to exercise this right, the terminating party shall provide written notice to the other party at least 30 (thirty) days prior to the date of termination for convenience. The parties agree that termination for convenience will not be deemed a termination for default nor will it entitle either party to any rights or remedies provided by law or this Agreement for breach of contract or any other claim or cause of action.
